

Documenting and Collecting Snow Impression Evidence

Thursday, January 14, 2010 8:30 – 4:30

A one day workshop hosted by the Alaska State Crime Lab and the APSC Traveling Trainer Program

This intensive One Day Workshop focuses on training Law Enforcement Officers to document, collect and preserve snow impression evidence.

Instructed by:

Jim Wolfe – APSC Traveling
Trainer

The workshop will provide hands on training covering:

Evaluating Snow Impression Evidence at the Crime Scene

Shoe Impressions, Tire Impressions, Snowmachine Impressions

Documenting the location and context of the impressions using photography

Use of placards and spray paint

Dealing with low light conditions

Obtaining evidence quality photographs of snow impressions.

Optimum settings for digital cameras

Enhancing contrast through oblique lighting, spray paint.

Casting snow impressions.

Use of Dental Stone and Sulfur Cement

Call The Alaska State Crime Lab to Register
(907) 269-5740

Registration is limited to 12 participants
Participants need to bring a camera, tripod (if available), and outdoor clothing.